

Century Community Charter School believes that close communication between home and school is important to a student's educational success. Therefore, we value and encourage parental involvement. Should you have questions regarding your student's performance, please contact the appropriate person so your questions and concerns can be addressed in an effective and timely manner. We also promote and support students taking the opportunity to advocate for themselves. We feel that most issues or concerns can be resolved between (y)our amazing students and our dedicated teachers and staff.

Please follow the procedures listed below if you have any concerns:

1. Ask your child if he or she has spoken directly with his or her teacher before or after class.
2. Contact your child's teacher directly.
3. If the problem is not resolved, please contact an Assistant Principal.
4. If the matter remains unresolved, please address your concerns to Mrs. Dana Means, Principal.

TEACHER

Every teacher has an email address. Contact the teacher directly with questions concerning grades, make-up work, classroom and behavior. All teachers have an individual webpage where you can find homework assignments. Visit us at www.centurycommunitycharter.weebly.com. Parent/teacher conferences may be set up by emailing (aalvarez@centurycharter.org) or calling (310-412-2286) Ms. Alvarez.

POWERSCHOOL.COM

It is highly recommended that parent use POWERSCHOOL.COM in order to check on grades, attendance, and citizenship for your student(s). Please get the password information from your child.

COMMUNICATION COURTESY

Please allow up to 48 hours for staff members to return phone calls and emails. In advance, thank you for your cooperation and patience! We ask that you call to make an appointment when you wish to meet with staff members.

WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

The WEEKLY BULLETIN is our most efficient means of communicating within the school community. The newsletter is sent home with your child every Wednesday. It is also posted on our school website, www.centurycommunitycharter.weebly.com
